Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Harmon and May Kopperud have been involved and active boosters of the community of Lake Preston longer than most people can remember; and,

WHEREAS, In their half century of banking in Lake Preston, Harmon and May have devoted all their energies to making the town a better place to live. Harmon was instrumental in the construction of the first Kingsbury County Memorial Hospital in the late 40's, he was largely responsible for the building of Kingsbury County Memorial Manor which was opened in September of 1959, and he was also behind the construction of the new twenty-bed hospital which is just a few years old; and,

WHEREAS, Since coming to Lake Preston in the 1920's, Harmon and May have been involved in everything that is important to the town and its people. As members of Lake Preston Lutheran Church, they have also sponsored a missionary in Hong Kong; and,

WHEREAS, Along with the Senior Civic Club, the Garden Club, and the Crippled Children's Hospital, the Kopperuds have also spent most of their adult life being members of a wonderful (and growing) family. Their own four children are: James, Eloise, Helen, and their late son, Bob; and,

WHEREAS, Harmon and May Kopperud have given a great deal to Lake Preston and to South Dakota. To show their appreciation, the friends and family of the Kopperuds will be gathering together September 11 to pay a special tribute to these two special people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 11, 1983, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirty-first Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
